JAZZ&CO DANCE

Students are selected to join this pre-professional performing company based on their technical ability, stage presence, flexibility, maturity, and work ethic. In addition to Loudoun School of Ballet recitals, performances include two yearly contemporary concerts and two regional (NYCDA and WCDE) dance competitions. A yearly $175 company fee is required and includes the use of company costumes. Additional expenses may include workshop and competition fees, company jacket, dance clothing basics (shoes, tights, earrings, undergarments, etc.) as required for individual dances. Specific requirements are sent to potential members.
